

AP English 11 Language and Composition 2021 Summer Reading Assignment

Hello. I am excited that you will be in my AP English 11 Language and Composition class next year! Between now and the fall, I am asking you to read two books. Although I will not be collecting anything from you in the fall, I am strongly encouraging you to write down observations on what happens, quotes you find important, your reactions, etc. so that when class begins, you have something with you as we discuss your readings. You will not need to have copies of the books with you in the fall. You will, though, have to get your own copies of the books as you read them this summer. You will need to read William Golding's Lord of the Flies and Trevor Noah's Born a Crime. For Born a Crime, feel free to read either the Adapted for Young Readers version (designed for readers under the age of 14) or the originally published standard version. Should you have any questions or concerns over the summer, feel free to email me at craig.pajak@uticak12.org, and I will be happy to respond to you.

Be well, and have a terrific summer!

Mr. Pajak
