SEASONS OF LOVE

The 2020/2021 Eisenhower Marching Eagles are continuing to practice their show, Seasons of Love. Under the direction of Jonathan Carrothers and assisted by Lawanda Parker. The marching ensemble looks forward to the day they can perform their entire piece for parents/guardians, the student body and the community.

The four school day ensembles are also working hard on their music for Concert, Symphonic, Wind Ensemble, and Jazz Band. There has already been hundreds of hours of instrumental music practice in homes across the area and they look forward to the day they can perform together in person!
